

THE DAILY APPEAL.

FRIDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 2, 1857.

50¢ Maj. Gen. McClellan arrived in the city yesterday morning, and is staying at the Warden House.

POT OFFICE LAW.—It may be a surprise to many to learn that no more bank bills will be received at the Memphis Post Office. Nothing but gold and silver taken.

From a notice of the Superintendent of the City Schools, it will be seen that the Schools which have been deprived of houses by being burnt recently, will be resuscitated at the Medical College on Beale street, and at Haskins' building on the corner of Hernando and Beale streets, on Monday next.

Evening Leader.—It will be observed from the advertisement that this paper will make its appearance again soon, owing to the publication of a new edition, and that Mr. & Mrs. Bass, all of whom are practical printers and well acquainted with the business to which they have embarked. Success to them.

Memphis Appeal.—We are informed that some very desolate country residence eleven miles from Memphis, in sight of Union Depot, and the Memphis and Ohio Railroad. The place is well improved, well watered, in a desirable neighborhood, and convenient to market. See advertisement in another column.

M. S. KENNEDY.—Editor of the Balancer, published at Batavia, Ill., is present in our city. The object of his visit is to procure advertising for his paper. It is a well known fact that a good portion of the State, and we would consider it to be of our merchants and others an easy way in which to extend their businesses in that section.

We learn that Col. Conner will return in a day or two from his visit to the East, the object of which was to select furniture and equipments for the New Gavoye. He has completed his purchases which have been made without regard to expense, and upon a scale of taste and magnificence, which will place the Gavoye on a footing with any hotel in the Union.

Mr. PRENTICE'S Lecture.—Mr. Geo. D. Prentice, of the Louisville Journal, lectured on the political aspect of American politics. His lecture was an eloquent and elaborate specimen of composition, and was listened to with respectful attention and interest, especially calling forth plaudits, which indicated high appreciation of his brilliant fancy and pointed sarcasm.

NORTHERN BANK OF MISSISSIPPI.—Despatches were received in this city yesterday, from New Orleans, announcing that Messrs. McDowell, Mills & Co. were declining to receive the deposit of the Northern Bank of Mississippi. No reason was alleged for this course; but it is believed by many that the issues will be met at Holly Springs. We learn that a package of bills were sent out to Holly Spring yesterday to test the water. We would advise outsiders not to sacrifice their notes until further advice.

NEW THEATRE.—This building is still progressing. It is nearly or quite covered, and the workmen are making rapid headway on the interior. Some faint idea may now be formed of the grandeur of the hall, which will present in its finished state. The interior will very much resemble the "Gaiety" in New Orleans, and will be in no respect inferior to it in style and finish.

We learn that the larger portion of Mr. Cain's troupe have arrived, and that the entire company will soon be here, when the work is expected to be completed and opened to the public.

FALCONER'S STATEMENT CORRECTED.—We understand that the statement in this paper concerning the credit of Messrs. E. H. Hill, Eqy. Notary Public, is making from one hundred and fifty to two hundred protests a day on paper of no business. Nothing could be more false and impudent to our business.

Furniture &c.—We are pleased to exhibit the most wanted specimens of FURNITURE ever seen in this city. We invite all to call and inspect our store, and judge for yourselves. Give us a trial.
